Alma Mater

Oh, Hubbard High, we cherish thy dear name.
We will revere thy colors blue and white.
In all our deeds we strive to raise thy fame;
Now as we sing we praise thee to the heights.
To Hubbard High our hearts will e'er be true;
Oh, Hubbard High, long wave the white, the blue.

DEDICATION

Best Wishes,
Robert J. Gray

During the four years that Mr. Gray has been our advisor he has guided us with good judgment and kindness. We can never repay him for the time he has devoted to making our high school days something to be remembered. His loyalty and understanding, combined with that "sixth sense"—good leadership, have guided us from our first uncertain freshman days through our junior-senior prom to the climax of our high school career—commencement. Although he was very active in school and civic affairs, he still found time to lend a helping hand to those who needed it. Though we leave ourselves to him in memory, we dedicate this book to him as material proof of our genuine appreciation of all he has done for us.

YEARBOOK STAFF

Standing, Left to Right—Pearl Troyer, Mary J. Mozzillo, Donald Shuklansky, Claramae Yereb, Patricia Picino, James Whitelock, Rosella Puskar, Robert Foreman, Mary Meier, Thomas Tufts, Joanna McIntyre, Myrna Pettitt.

Co-editors	Richard Stewart, Lenora Skruck
Literary Editor	Pearl Troyer
Feature Editor	Patricia Picino
Snapshot Editor	Evelyn Hackett
Sports Editor	Robert Craig
Business Managers	Mary Louise Marino, Mary Briody
Advertising Managers	Donald Shuklansky, Thomas Tufts
Advisors	Mr. Gray, Miss Burrows

After many months of planning the staff is extremely proud to present this record of events and activities that make up our 1950 yearbook.

We have printed a summary of the many joy-filled days spent in the protective arms of old "Mother Hubbard". In future years when you find yourself far removed from your high school, may it serve to remind you of the good friends and happy times you left behind in old Hubbard High.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

TO THE CLASS OF 1950 AND STUDENTS OF HUBBARD HIGH SCHOOL:

Your Board of Education has but one purpose—the betterment of Hubbard Schools. It has instituted the most ambitious program of expansion and improvement, both scholastically and physically, which has ever been undertaken in Hubbard School District.

The object of the Board of Education and Superintendent Reynolds is to establish a scholastic program and a new vocational program which will be second to none. Your Board is vitally interested in promoting athletics and every other extra-curricular activity which may be beneficial to the students and broadening to the school program.

Planning and supervising the erection of the new million dollar high school building, and the revision of the entire school system, are challenging objectives. Its realization will entail no small expenditure of time and effort, and the final result depends upon the help which you alone can give. Only with the continued co-operation of Hubbard High School students, their faculty, and the citizens of Hubbard can this goal be attained.

Congratulations to the Class of 1950 upon the completion of your high school education. You are to be commended for your fine school spirit and co-operation. Although you will not be able to receive directly the benefits of the new program, you may be proud that you have made a real contribution to its realization, and that thereby, indirectly, you too will share, because you have helped to build.

Congratulations to the Senior Class and their advisors on presenting this annual to the school and community. They have told the story of several hundred people in picture and words and have done it well.

I also wish to congratulate the Seniors upon their completion of high school and present to each of them a thought on how "WORDS CAN CHALLENGE".

How strange the power of great words! In fact, a single word, or the few words of a great quotation can be the talisman that can lift to wider horizons, or help weather difficult times. Words have power. Words are ideas. Ideas move the world. Ideas can move you!

Physically, the law of gravity holds us to the earth; mentally, we are bound by no chains except of our own forging. Thus, through ignoble words, we may trudge the gutter, or through noble words tread the high places of the earth or universe. The choice is yours!

Emerson has said, "Do the thing, and you shall have the power." May God bless you in your future undertakings and remember that your achievements will be an inspiration to us for further service in our work.

Our desire is to faithfully aid all youth to a realization of a full and happy life.

We firmly believe that pupils must appreciate scholarship, desire to improve themselves, respect law and order, and practice living in harmony with fellow students and teachers.

Our goal . . . to instill in each heart that radiant feeling resulting from happy, successful living!

CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of 1950, being of sound mind and body, do hereby bequeath the following items to our successors, the Juniors. We do declare this to be our Last Will and Testament.

Ben Adams leaves his place on the All County Team to Anthony Salerno.

Bob Allen is going to leave—still paying for repairs on his car.

Juanita Andrews leaves with a heavy heart and a "model" future.

Sarah Askew leaves her friendliness to Dixie Kiffer.

Phil Bair leaves his wise cracks to someone wiser.

Shirley Berlin leaves her roller skates to Jerry Beach.

Mary Briody leaves heading for a secretarial career and Ed.

Ernestine Callison leaves her favorite record "I'm Just Wild About Harry" to Mary Lou Reese.

Helen Carano leaves in a long black car—that belongs to Bob.

Richard Casey leaves behind his drawl to obtain a job with a fast moving firm.

Ruth Conn leaves all the girls jealous of her engagement ring.

Bob Craig leaves Miss McKelvey and the library to invade society.

Dallas Crytzer leaves his bashfulness to Steve DeMaiolo.

Ed Dorus would leave his brain to someone, but what would he do without it?

Phyllis Duke leaves her studious ways to Joyce Cooley.

Norma Foraker leaves her red hair and sports to Margie McPheron.

Bob Foreman leaves his curly hair to Jerome Wittenauer.

Harry Fricker leaves his inquisitive civic mind to Ralph Baker.

Betty Furillo leaves her height to Lois McLain.

Barbara Garland leaves her sense of humor to Shirley Fiedler.

Evelyn Hackett leaves her hair (which is natural) to any girls without it.

Walter Hackett leaves his quiet ways to Don Harder.

Mildred Hamlin leaves her quiet, shy ways to Millie Sloan.

Bernice Horvatovich leaves her boyfriends to Jean Allen.

Jack Hurl leaves his beloved literature book in his locker.

Betty Jacobson leaves her odd questions to Florence Davis.

Ken Johnson can't leave his dimples; he needs them.

Betty Ker leaves her shiny nose to Sally Katilus.

Ed Kish leaves his ready laugh to Jim Hurl.

Josephine Koebel leaves her long eyelashes to Barbara Mason.

Ethel Kuthy leaves her bangs to Beverly Hettrick.

Dolly Marino leaves—still dreaming of Tony.

Jerry Mason leaves his ready arguments to "Bert" Madeline.

Edris May leaves her daily jokes to any Junior with a sense of humor.

Joanna McIntyre leaves her talks to Ronnie in the hall to Madeline Carsone and "Gooch."

Dick McKnight leaves his driving book to Sandy Forte.

Mary Meier leaves those big blue eyes to Betty Ferrar.

Chuck Mitchell leaves his nickname "Bashful" to Patsy Villano.

Carl Morell leaves his striped shorts to Henry Clacko.

Chuck Morris will leave for sunny Florida to live with his parents.

Mary Jo Mozzillo leaves her knitting to Alice Yates.

Bob O'Bruba leaves with Toni, and we wish them future happiness.

CLASS WILL

Dolores Opalenik leaves for a new life with Tony.
Andy Pannunzio leaves his position as football captain to Al and Don.
Phyllis Pascarella leaves her lovely hands to a fingernail-biting Junior girl.
Phil Pelton leaves his devilish ways to George Laubert.
Eleanor Petrosky leaves her shorthand book to Rae Vernell.
Myrna Pettitt leaves her brains to Olga Glus.
Lillian Phillips leaves her pin-curls and babushka to any unfortunate with straight hair.
Fred Pappa leaves his curly red hair and winning smile to shy Al Faber.
Sally Poschner leaves still fiddling her time away.
Toni Pucak leaves her typing record to any struggling one-fingered Junior.
Rosella Puskar leaves her throne to Sally Shaffer.
Joe Putkovich leaves his ability in shop to Bill Mitchell.
Josephine Putkovich leaves her habit of forgetting to come to school to Nancy Thomas.
Lou Ann Reeder isn't leaving Tommy to anyone.
Dan Ressler leaves Miss Toy's English class, and he "ain't got no" regrets.
Arietta Rolfe leaves her seat on the school bus to Dorothy Horvath.
Patsy Roth leaves—still slinging hash at Raver's Tavern.
Virginia Scherl leaves her Presidency to any Junior girl able to snatch it.
Lois Shaner leaves in a black coupe with a ring on her finger.
Mary Ann Sharisky leaves to catch up with Marty.
Jerry Sharshan leaves her golden locks to any Junior gal wishing to save the price of peroxide.
Jackie Shores is leaving as soon as possible to join Bob wherever he'll be.
Don Shuklansky leaves his fabulous vocabulary to some struggling Junior.
Lenora Skruck leaves her neat ways to Nancy Nogal.
Bob Slifko leaves his dark hair and handsomeness to Delano Thompson.
Dick Stewart leaves his trumpet to Charles Reed.
Merle Stinson leaves his senior play "knickers" to Anthony Camuso.
Betty Swartz is leaving in such a hurry that the rest are all far behind.
Ed Takash leaves his sudden outbursts of intelligence to Emerson Tobey.
Don Thomas leaves—still loafing around Hayman's to see Edris.
Pearl Troyer leaves her twirling baton to anyone who thinks she can fit into her majorette uniform.
Tom Tufts leaves his brain and brawn to Johnny Opalenik.
Millie Valiquette leaves her place in the orchestra to Barbara Jones.
Frank Vargo leaves his daydreaming in civics class to Jerry Deininger.
Richard Walker leaves his interest in the fair sex to Clarence Kirkwood.
Bob Walkosak leaves his blue eyes and secret admirers to a lucky Junior boy.
Ileene Welk leaves her fish tales to Barbara Sowers.
Emily Wereb leaves her helpful friendly ways to Barbara Suhy.
Rosemarie Wittenauer leaves her wit to Sally Scott.
Jim Whitelock leaves his stage-manager's job to Ray Fioramonte.
Claramae Yereb leaves for Farrell with a light in her eyes.

To all those Juniors who had nothing willed to them, we leave our home room seats in old "34".

In Witness Whereof, We, the Senior Class, have set our hand and seal hereto this twenty-fourth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty (1950).

Part of the custodian's staff . . . Future secretaries tic'kle the keys . . . A courteous gentleman holds the door for the girls . . . After the season, the coach smiles . . . Our Star Spangled Banner . . . Rest period in gym class . . . Warm smiles on a sunny day . . . Those lads do all right, don't they? . . . The "Girls" watch the birdie . . . Veteran advisors of many a school annual . . . Four future grads "caught" at the door . . . We've just been to the Library.

REMEMBER WHEN ? ? ?

Yes, that was the thrill that comes only once in a lifetime. Our first day of school ! Confusion, I think, is what they called it. What a time the teachers had with us !

Second grade was more exciting than first. Remember when Jack squealed on everyone and Mrs. Delbane would give everyone a spanking? Oh, yes, that was the year Kish ran home to put on a suit and a tie when he found out they were going to take pictures.

Along about third grade, we felt a little more at home. Remember when we were put into the P, Q, and R sections? Morris got put back into the Q section. I wonder if Don was using big words then or just having a good time teasing the girls.

Fourth and fifth grades had us on the run. We had to do a little more work. The teachers couldn't put up with us very well, and one even shed a few tears over us. That was the year all the little girls and boys got to see the B-19 that the teacher's brother flew over the school. How exciting !

Sixth grade ! We were the kings and queens of the Roosevelt Building. We felt just about as proud as the Seniors.

How thrilling and adventurous were those days in the seventh and eighth grades ! We felt like little ants running through the halls. It's a wonder that none of us got trampled underfoot. The girls didn't know how to operate the showers, so, of course, they thought they'd see how they worked. The poor innocent gal was drenched, clothes and all !

Freshmen at last ! How wonderful ! How we looked forward to Room 17 as our home room ! Patty tried to pick a fight with a locker, but got the worst end of it. Wasn't it amazing how that orange got splattered all over the front wall? Oh, yes, we chose Mr. Gray as our Class Advisor.

Sophomores, and, oh, so quick ! We all worked so hard that year. All of us, including Mr. Gray, were scheming to make money. Our play was a huge success, as were our dances.

Yes, we finally made the grade to become Juniors. What a year that was ! We had our play and then our dance. We finally got enough in the treasury to give a wonderful Prom for the Seniors. Remember how we decorated until 4:00 a. m., and then came back at 10:00 a. m. to finish? It was a grand success and Mr. Gray heaved a sigh of relief.

Well, there we were in "34" for our last year of school. Miss Waldschmidt and Mr. Gray were our home room teachers. We had lots of fun ordering pictures and getting them passed out. We put out the Hub, too, with Rosella as Editor. Then we started on the Annual. Dick S. and Lenora were Co-editors. We thank Mr. Gray and Miss Burrows for their help. Of course, we all hate to leave H. H. S., and we know that we'll miss all of the good times we have had.

STUDENT COUNCIL

Student Council is a group of high school students elected by the student body to represent them in important decisions around school. One representative was elected to Council from each home room, with the larger rooms, 34 and 17, electing three representatives. During the first semester of each year, the president of the group is a senior representative, while a junior takes over as president during the second semester.

One of the chief duties of Student Council is to take charge of all assembly programs. This includes the booking of outside programs and seeing that there is a program every week.

In the 1948-49 school year, the main topic of discussion was a student handbook. This handbook would include rules, regulations, and all things of general interest in the school. A detailed schedule of classes and teachers, a map to better acquaint new students with the general layout of the building were also to be included. During this year the monitor system was set up by council to control the usual hall traffic.

Mr. MacDonald is the advisor of the Student Council.

Buckeye Boys' State is Ohio's proud share in the National American Legion Boys' State program. It is a school in which future citizens of Ohio have an opportunity to learn in a few days, the ideals, objectives, and mechanics of self-government in a democracy.

Girls' State, held at Capitol University, is set up for the same purposes for girls and is sponsored by The American Legion Auxiliary.

Seated —Henry Clacko.

Standing—Jerry Deininger, Beverly Hettrick, Bill Mitchell, Barbara Mason, Joy Smith.

"We Shook the Family Tree," by Hildegarde Dolson, was the senior class production in December. Who can forget Merle Stinson in knickers? They certainly almost upset his love interest in Rosella Puskar. Betty Ker and Jerry Mason (Mother and Father) had their hands full with four lively children, Rosella, Patty Picino, Bob Allen and Carl Morell. What a riot of laughter greeted Carl in shorts! And the "dead fish" scene was terrific. Important supporting roles were played by Lenora Skruck, Pearl Troyer, Richard Walker, Juanita Andrews, and Joanna McIntyre. Miss Waldschmidt directed the three-act comedy.

"The Big Help" was the junior class play in March. Remember politician Jerry Deininger (father) who had a house full of helpful people who did everything but help his reputation; his son, Bill Mitchell, who did everything to get his name changed from Claude, Jr., to just plain Bill; the high-toned boy-poet, Henry Clacko, who was finally tamed down by Barbara Mason so that he was quite human and understanding? Other characters were portrayed by Don Ritenour, Beverly Hettrick, Clarice Foley, Betty Ferrar, Joy Smith, Bill Popa, Sally Shaffer, Sally Quinn, Diane Chufo, Patsy Villano, Barbara Sowers and Geraldine Beach. Mr. St. John directed.

President	Bob Walkosak
Vice President	Tom Tufts
Secretary	Ken Johnson
Treasurer	Bob Craig
Chaplain	Dick Stewart
Sergeant-at-Arms	Don Shuklansky
Advisors	Mr. Cunningham
	Mr. Smouse

The Hi-Y is a Christian organization to create, maintain, and extend throughout the school and community, high standards of Christian character. It is affiliated with the Y. M. C. A. in Youngstown. Bob Walkosak served as president this year, with Mr. Cunningham and Mr. Smouse as advisors.

One of the principle activities this year was the filling of a basket with food, toys, etc., for a needy family at Christmas. Hi-Y Civic Day, March 13, was held by all the clubs of the Mahoning Valley Council. Eleven local members held various offices in government, industry, and school on that day.

Hi-Y is not all work. Many social functions were held during the year, both at school and in conjunction with the Council. Parties were held in Hubbard, and the Winter and Spring formals were enjoyed in Youngstown.

Athletically, the clubs had two teams in the Hi-Y league. Both teams finished with good records after slow starts.

Row 1—Bob Craig, Dick Stewart, Ken Johnson, Bob Walkosak, Tom Tufts, Don Shuklansky.

Row 2—Mr. Cunningham, Carl Morell, Bob Foreman, Dallas Crytzer, Louis Pogany, Ronald Beckham, Ed. Kish, Mr. Smouse.

Row 3—Don Craig, Jim Whitelock, Charles Mitchell, Richard Casey, John Johnston, Bob Kelley, Jerry Mason, Patsy Villano.

G. A. A.

Row 1—Dixie Kiffer, Jackie Shores, Elva Faber, Dorothy Horvath, Phyllis Duke, Sue Evans, Beverly Hettrick, Doris Bell.

Row 2—Miss Miller, Barbara Mason, Rosella Puskar, Jane Kyle, Carol Harder, Rosemary Madeline, Irma Redinger, Eva Troyer, Judith Doughton, Pearl Troyer.

Row 3—Lenora Skruck, Olga Glus, Jean Allen, Nancy Koehli, Carolyn Straitiff, Patty McBride, Carol Frye, Blanche Puirkoski, Nancy Nock.

Row 5—Margaret Wozniak, Mary Briody, Marilyn Doughton, Joan Balzic, Alice Yates, Sally Katilus, Shirley Bowers, Barbara Bowman, Jane Stewart, Mary Jane Newell.

The G. A. A. is comprised of girls interested in athletics in both the junior and senior high school. The purpose of the organization is to administer athletics in such a way as to develop cooperation, comradeship, sportsmanship, leadership, and fellowship among the girls of Hubbard High School and support organized activities for the physical benefit of all. Any girl may become a member after participating in interclass sports and who has accumulated points during the year.

GIRL LEADERS

The Girl Leaders Club, an honor organization, was founded in 1939 by Miss Iva Miller, physical education director. Each girl is selected because of her outstanding ability in physical education, dependability, and interest in promoting sports among high school girls.

The Girl Leaders Club is an organization which will develop responsibility in directing activities which will in turn develop such qualities as leadership, self-confidence, and general personality.

Each leader assists in regular gym classes, helping to organize the class work, and occasionally teaching an activity.

Leaders help run off the athletic tournaments serving as referees, umpires, timers, or scorers.

Row 1—Carolyn Straitiff, Nancy Nock, Jackie Shores, Dixie Kiffer, Barbara Mason, Jane Kyle, Beverly Hettrick.

Row 2—Miss Miller, Toni Pucak, Lois Blair, Bernice Horvatovich, Josephine Putkovich, Clara Yereb, Carol Frye.

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Seated, Left to Right—Mr. Hall, Carolyn Strailiff, Dorothy Horvath, Joyce Hunsinger, Joanna McIntyre, Miss Waldschmid , Mr. MacDonald, Mr. St. John.

Athletic Association

The Athletic Association is composed of twenty members, of which the students elect ten, one boy and one girl, from each of the Senior, Junior, Sophomore, and Freshman classes, and two members of the faculty. The other ten are the Superintendent, the Principal of the High School, the coaches, faculty manager, and two representatives from the Board of Education.

This organization governs the varied fields of inter-scholastic sports. Mr. MacDonald is President of the group, while Miss Waldschmidt and Mr. McLaughlin are the Secretaries.

DEDICATION OF STADIUM

Hubbard High School dedicated its new $55,000 memorial stadium before Governor Frank J. Lausche and an estimated 4,500 persons under the lights on Saturday, October 17, 1949. An inaugural football game between Hubbard and Girard at 8:15 p. m. featured the celebration. The program and game were broadcast over station WBBW and were heard by many thousands of people. Fans filled the 2,400 portable bleacher seats and spilled over into every available vantage space on the field. Eighty 1,500-watt lamps mounted on eight poles towering 70 feet into the air, supplied a ceiling of light over the stands.

This year marked the first year of coaching for Francis Smouse, former grid great at Youngstown College. He took over the reigns of the junior high with a green team, since most of last years' regulars moved up to the varsity.

The Eaglets showed great promises in the newly-formed Steel Valley Conference, winning three games and losing four. Of the four losses, two were close, and weren't decided until late in the game.

Good ball was played by the following, who should help the varsity in the future: Linemen—Webb, Horvath, Plumeret, Oakley, Mahon, Wolford, Ross, Pasquale, and Hubbard; backs — Whittle, Carsone, Gossick, Madeline, Rowe, and Welk.

The little Eagles scored victories over Fitch, Memorial, Brookfield, and tied Niles Washington.

Hats-off to Mr. Smouse for doing such a magnificent job in his first year here.

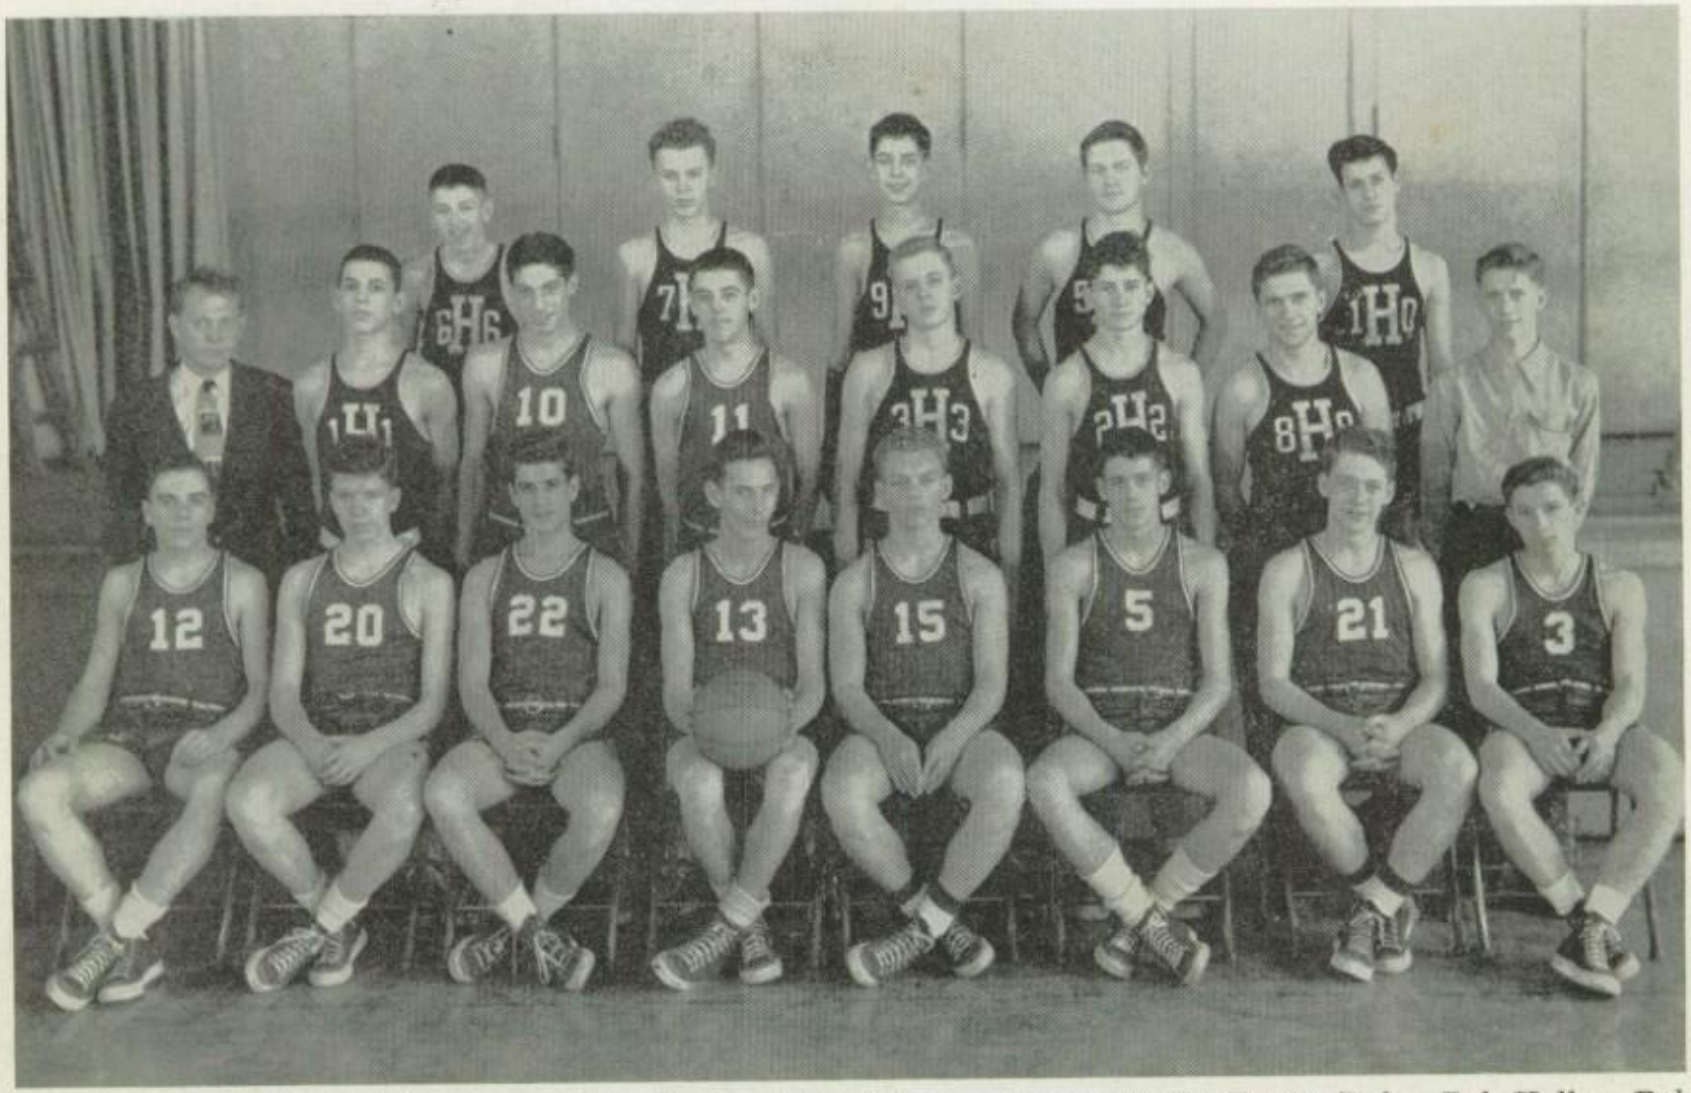
BASKETBALL



Row 1—Tom Tufts, Bob Foreman, John Varga, John Luthern, Rodney Wells, Ernest Ruby, Bob Kelley, Bob Walkosak.

Row 2—Mr. Vanaman, Mike O'Conner, John Ferrett, Leonard Slemmons, Bill White, Ralph Reynolds, Glenn Stiver, Charles Shufflebarger, Mgr.

Row 3—Donald Crytzer, Myron Blasko, Walter Potock, Wick Hollenbank, Carmen Chicone.

Basketball started on the upgrade in Hubbard High School when Coach Clyde Vanaman was lured here from North Canton, Ohio. Although the team didn't win any games, the basketball "know how" learned from Mr. Vanaman and from competition should boost them into the victory column next year. Mr. Vanaman found it necessary to start from the bottom to remedy a sorry situation, and the quality of ball near the season's end was many times superior to early season play. Spirit and determination was more prevalent than in recent years. Foul shooting improved as the season progressed. Senior lettermen are: Bob Walkosak, Tom Tufts, Bob Foreman, Andy Pannunzio, Bob Craig, Jerry Mason and Ken Johnson. Returning lettermen include: Bob Kelley and John Luthern, Juniors; and John Ferrett, John Varga, and Rodney Wells, Sophomores.

JUNIOR HIGH BASKETBALL

Row 1—Bob Smelko, Jim Ross, George Whittle, Bob Welton, Tom Plumeret, George Prazinick, Joe Pasquerella, Red Ensley, John Curry.

Row 2—Mike Putkovich, Quartermaster; Don Landy, John O'Conner, Russell Webb, Mr. Tucciarone, Coach; Bill Waltman, Bob Leone, Rex Welk, Ed Madeline, Bill Oakley, Quartermaster.

The little Eagle dribblers had rough going this year, starting the season without an experienced player on the squad. Their fight and determination won two games as Coach Tucciarone groomed his lads for high school ball next year.

Plumeret, Prazinick, Ross, Whittle, Ensley, Welton, Madeline and Pasquerella saw plenty of action on the hardwood. The junior high cagers edged Niles McKinley, 22-21, and Campbell Memorial, 35-30.

In the spring the golfers get out their clubs and warm up at the Hubbard Golf Course. Coach Tucciarone has lettermen Andy Pannunzio, Pat Villano, and Sandy Forte back to form a nucleus for his five man squad. Last year they played a seven match schedule, winning five, losing one, and tying one.

BASEBALL

Standing—

Frank Vargo, Ernest Ruby, Anthony Salerno, Ed. Kish, Charles Ladig, John Luthern, Ralph Reynolds, Mr. Hall, Coach.

Kneeling—

Jerry Mason, Bob Kelley, Carmen Chicone, Dick Stewart, Bob Craig, Joseph Costick.

Baseball, an infant sport in H. H. S., is in its third year. Prospects looked good this spring for Coach Hall's nine at presstime. Only one player was lost by graduation in 1949. The baseball team as well as football, basketball, and golf are in the Steel Valley Conference, newly-formed organization with teams from Niles, Girard, Fitch, Campbell Memorial, and Struthers. Last year's nine finished with a record of four victories and eight losses.

CLASS PROPHECY

This is Station WHHS bringing you our talent scout show for 1960. Our Master of Ceremonies is none other than that incomparable Carl Morell ! He is backstage talking to Mr. Shuklansky, Mr. Craig, and Mr. Tufts, owners of WHHS.

Tonight is the greatest night of the year, as good talent is competing with itself. The engineers, Mr. Bair and Mr. J. P. Johnston, just gave the signal that we are now on the air.

At the mike now are Dan, Jack, and Richard C., those great commercial pushers, advertising that wonderful dish, "Emily's Home-Made Meat Balls." Let's listen:

"Good, good, good,
Yummy, yummy, yummy.
Emily's Home-Made Meat Balls
Are the best thing for your tummy !"

There is a round of applause as Mr. Morell steps up to the mike. He announces that our first talent scout is Bob Walkosak who has brought "The Henpecked Quartet" (Nick, Harry, Andy, and Bob S.) as his talent for tonight. The band consists of Bob F., Chuck Mitchell, Dick S., Ken, Jerry M., and Joanna McIntyre. Their selection will be "Ragg Mopp". Those boys really did a good job on that number.

Next on the show is Shirley with her talent, Norma and Pat C., who will sing "Blue Skies." Their voices blend beautifully. While they were singing, I looked into the audience and saw Dolores and Tony trying to make the twins quit running up and down the aisles. They are cute little rascals.

Mr. Morell now reads a letter he received from Fred Pappa saying how much he likes Emily's Home-Made Meat Balls.

Our next talent scout is Claramae Yereb. She has brought that Hillbilly Trio—Lois, Betty S., and Mary Ann. They are singing "Careless Hands," a typical hillbilly song. A very fine job they did, too.

Our next talent scout is "Sis" Madeline. She has brought something unusual to the program. It is Frank, with his accordion, and Ed Kish, doing a Russian dance. You should see Ed dance !

As we look out into the audience, we see Josephine P., Lillian, Jackie, Ruth, and guess who is in the middle of all the commotion? It's none other than dear old "Barb." Wouldn't you just guess it? I suppose they were laughing at the way Ed was almost touching the floor with his knees. That was quite a dance he did !

CLASS PROPHECY

Here is our next talent scout, Lou Ann, introducing "Fanny, the Fan Dancer, and Bubbles, the Bubble Dancer," (Lenora and Rosella), those two darling girls! Just listen to the applause!

And now here is Emily's Meat Ball Chorus, consisting of Ernestine, Phyllis D., Ethel G., Evelyn, Mildred H., Ethel K., Virginia L., Mary M., Myrna, Pat P., Arietta, Patsy, Gerry, Dallas, Ed Dorus, Walter, Phil, Merle, and Joe. It seems that at one time these kids were the bashful type, but times have changed!

Our next talent scout is Betty Furillo. Her talent for tonight is Sally, who is a violinist. Yes, that was Sally playing the "Hungarian Dance," and listen to that applause!

Now as that guesome trio tells us about Emily's Meat Balls we take a quick glance out into the audience again. Well, what do you know—there is Bernie, Mary B., Phyllis P., Dolly, Eleanor, Virginia S., Ileene, Rosemarie W., Millie V., and Mary Jo, all sitting together, and, yes, Mary Jo has on one of her own knitted sweaters. I suppose they are all happily married by now.

Well, look who are coming in the door, late as usual. Bob A., Dick M., Chuck Morris, and Rich W. I guess they just had to see what was going on. Now back to our program.

Jim seems to be our next talent scout. His talent is none other than Pearl, the girl with the golden voice. Her selection is "I Don't Want To Be Kissed." I just saw Toni and Bob walking out. They must be having trouble with their children.

Our next talent scout is Juanita. She brings Helen C. and Betty K. Betty will sing "Dreamers' Holiday" while Helen accompanies her at the piano. The audience liked that number!

Now here is our last talent scout of the evening, Edris. She brings Sara and Ben, who will sing a spiritual. A very fine number!

Oh, dear! There's the signal telling us that's all the time we have, but remember:

"At morning and at night,
And in the afternoon, too,
Nothing is more tempting
Than Emily's Meat Ball Stew!"

Dear Betty:

Best of luck to you in all your future years. I know you'll make the best of them because you have all the requirements to do so. Here's hoping you have as much or more success in the future as you have already had. Don't forget all the good times we've had together.

"Jerry"
